glass material - GRAS

To Whom It May Concern,

ETS Express is firmly committed to providing our clients and their end-buyers with the safest drinkware products in the promotional products industry. The materials and components, including our decorating inks, all comply with applicable FDA, Cal Prop 65, and other regulations.

As it relates to glass, the FDA considers this material GRAS (Generally Recognized As Safe) for food-contact use, based on their safe history of common use as food-contact materials.

Please let us know if you have any further questions or concerns.

sincerely,

ets express, llc
